Who can hide me from the Lord God?

By Richard Futrell

Here is a baptism hymn I wrote in about 2 hours, so it is still a first draft. Instead of being a hymn about only what God does in and through baptism, I wanted to broaden this hymn to include Christ's baptism in the broad sense—his life, death, and resurrection (Mk 10:29) and then traverse from there in to the actual Sacrament of Baptism. The melody I chose is "Arise" from Walker's Southern Harmony of 1835. This is one of the better American melodies I have come across. Many of our melodies are trite sounding—this one actually has depth, rhythm, and singability! Well, let me know what you think and provide any suggested improvements.

1. Who can hide me from the Lord God?
I am sinful and unclean! (Ps 51)
Guilt and evil live within me, Ever known and ever seen.
Only God can hide and keep me (Ps 32:7)
From His wrath and from His might; (Is 28:21)
Only He is pure and holy,
Covers me in purest light.
2. Christ was pierced for my transgressions,
Crushed for my iniquity! (Is 53:5)
Can I drink the cup that He drank? (Mk 10:29)
No, such thoughts are vanity.
In life, death, and resurrection,
The baptism that He took, (Mk 10:29)
Is the only place to hide me, (Ps 32:7)
Thanks to Christ's redeeming work. (1 Pe 3:21)
3. Washed and baptized into Jesus,
I am baptized in His death, (Rom 6:3)
He has named me and entombed me—
Gave me His life-giving breath. (Ro 6:5)
Now when God looks down upon me,
He finds me enrobed in Christ; (Gal 3:27)
I am holy and forgiven
Through His Son's dark sacrifice. (Acts 2:38, 22:26)
4. Now I live in my baptism,
Die each day with Christ and rise; (Eph 4:22)
Christ Himself now lives within me,
He has washed me, raised my eyes. (Eph 4:22)
Now I love and serve my neighbor,
Serving God, the true Divine. (Ro 6:3-4)
For no matter what may happen,
I am Christ's and He is mine. (Ro 8:38-39)

Praise the Almighty, My Soul, Adore Him

by Johann D. Herrnschmidt, 1675-1723 Translated by Alfred Brauer, altered

1. Praise the Almighty, my soul, adore Him! Yes, I will praise Him until death. With songs and anthems I come before Him As long as He shall give me breath. From Him my life and all things came; Praise, O my soul, His holy name. Alleluia! Alleluia!
2. Trust not in rulers: they are but mortal, They are but dust and soon decay; Vain are their counsels at life's last portal And fail when death will claim its prey. Since mortals can no help afford, Trust only Christ, our God and Lord. Alleluia! Alleluia!
3. Bless-ed, oh, bless-ed are they forever Whose help is from the Lord most dear, Whom from salvation nothing can sever, Who unto Christ in faith draw near. To all who trust in Him, our Lord Will aid and counsel now afford. Alleluia! Alleluia!
4. Poor, humbled sinners, for mercy crying, Pardon and peace from Him obtain; Ever the needs of the poor supplying, Their faithful God He will remain. He helps His children in distress, Widows bereaved, the fatherless. Alleluia! Alleluia!
5. Praise, ev'ry nation, the name so holy, Praise Him, His wondrous works and ways! All that has breath now praise Him solely, With joyful heart your Amen raise: One God, Three Persons, we adore, To Him be praise forevermore. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise to Thee and Adoration

By Thomas Hansen Kingo, 1634-1703 Translated by Kristen Kvamme, adapted

1. Praise to Christ, all adoration, Dearest Jesus, Son of God: For You served Your own creation, Came to share our flesh and blood. Jesus, grant I never stray From Your fold and from Your way, But with zeal and joy exceeding Follow where Your steps are leading.
2. Hold me ever in Your keeping, Comfort me in pain and strife; In my laughter and my weeping Be with me throughout my life. Give me greater love for You, And my faith and hope renew In Your birth, Your life, and Passion, In Your death and resurrection.

Prayer is the Soul's Sincere Desire

(In TLH but not LW) By James Montgomery, adapted

---

1. Prayer is the soul's supreme desire,
Unspoken or expressed,
The motion of a hidden fire
That burns within the breast.
2. Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can cry;
Yet prayer, the noblest chants that reach
The Majesty on high.
3. Prayer is the broken sinner's voice,
Led back to Christ, the Way,
While angels in their hymns rejoice
And sing, "This dear child prays."
4. Prayer is the true God-given breath,
A Christian's native tongue,
A watchword at the gates of death,
In heaven's glories sung!
5. The saints in prayer appear as one
In word and deed and mind,
While with the Father and the Son
True fellowship they find.
6. No prayers do humans make alone;
The Holy Spirit pleads,
And Christ on the eternal throne
For sinners intercedes.
7. O Christ, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer You, too, have trod:
Lord, teach us how to pray!

Ride On Ride On in Majesty

by Henry H. Milman, altered

---

1. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
Hear all the crowds "Hosanna" cry; O Savior King,
Your road pursue
As palms and cloaks are spread for You.
2. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die; O Christ,
Your triumphs now begin
To capture death and conquer sin.
3. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
The angel squadrons of the sky
Look down with sad and wondering eyes
To see the coming Sacrifice.
4. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
Your last and fiercest strife is nigh;
The Father on His royal throne
Awaits His own anointed Son.
5. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die;
Bow down Your head to mortal pain,
Then take, O Christ, Your pow'r and reign.

Rachel's Cross-Reference

by Rachel Moldenhauer

Since the introduction of Christian Worship: A Lutheran Hymnal (CW), we have had a number of requests for a cross-reference between The Lutheran Hymnal (TLH) and CW. The request was natural as many congregations find themselves in transition between the two hymnals. In fact, in some congregations, both hymnals are in the pews. In these cases it makes sense to cross-reference the hymn numbers between the two books.

Rachel's Cross-Reference, assembled by Rachel Moldenhauer, accomplishes this task. In part 1, simply look up the number of the hymn in TLH on one side and scan to the corresponding CW hymn number on the other. Part 2 lists the hymns in CW order. You'll find this list a handy tool as your congregation makes the transition from one hymnal to the other.

Please accept this tool as our gift to you. We hope that you find it useful.

Yours in Christ,

Mark C. Brunner

New Web Address

by the editor

Praise Today has a new web address! No, Praise Today didn't move; Praise Today is still at the same GeoCities site it has always been at. GeoCities, in its upgrade of services, assigned the user ID (in this case "praisetoday") to the end of the geocities.com address. Thus, to help you remember where Praise Today is, you only need to know:

<http://www.geocities.com/praisetoday>

Keep checking back at Praise Today as the web site undergoes a face lift! If there are any things you'd like to see improved on Praise Today's web site, something added, navigation aids, let me know! I seek to make this as valuable a resource as possible.

Also, with the upcoming January 2001 issue, the newsletter itself will undergo a facelift. Look for the new look coming soon! Again, feedback and input is welcome!

Thank you for reading Praise Today, for sharing your ideas, and for your support!

Sincerely,

John L. Hoh, Jr.
