

North Texas Traditional Dance Society Presents

When In Doubt, Swing! XIII April 4-6, 2003 Dallas, TX

Mary Devlin

calling to the music of

KGB

Julie King (piano)

Claude Ginsberg (violin, viola, concertina)

Dave Bartley (mandolin, guitar, cittern, etc.)

Mary Devlin's infectious spirit of joy and fun makes her one of the Northwest's favorite callers for both contras and English country dance. New and experienced dancers from coast to coast love Mary's quick and explicit teaching, her clear, crisp calling, and her flowing dances.

KGB is a high-powered acoustic trio disguised as a contradance band. The Seattle-based group has inspired dancers and listeners alike throughout the Pacific Northwest with their exciting interpretations of traditional reels and jigs, original compositions and exquisite waltzes. They know how to play for dancers--with straightforward driving New England tunes, smoky tango riffs, jazz-rock phrases, even frantic Balkan scales.
