

The Great Brazos Road Rallye

Saturday, April 22, 2006

(Rain Date: Saturday, April 29, 2006)

The Brazos Brits will be running the first annual Great Brazos Road Rally on Saturday, April 22 with a rain date of April 29. The prizes aren't exactly mind-boggling, but there's no entry fee, either.

What about the Road Rally?

It's a fun event, in which teams of people in cars follow a set of driving directions to get from the starting point of the Rally to the Rally Finale. Along the way, the teams try to find answers to The Rally Master's questions.

The Road Rally is NOT a race! Cars follow the printed instructions as closely as possible, observing safe, indicated speeds, as they look for the answers to the sometimes tricky questions. The emphasis is on SAFETY, accuracy, observation... and fun!

RALLY RULES

1. Registration and Start will be at the Texas A&M Veterinary School at Agronomy Road and University in College Station.
2. Entry is open to all comers with a maximum of 40 cars. First come - first served.
3. No entry fee.
4. Check-in will begin at 9:00 and end at 10:00. The first car will be flagged out at 10:01.
5. Maximum 4 people per car, minimum 2 people per car. No solo competitors.
6. Each team (driver and passengers) must sign a liability waiver prior to starting the rally.
7. Only pre-registered passengers are allowed in vehicle.
8. Each registered car will be given a number and a set of instructions for the route to be followed.
9. The Rally will begin at 10:00 am on Saturday. The cars will be released at 2-minute intervals. Maximum elapsed time will be 4 hours.
10. Vehicles can be disqualified at any time for un-sportsmanlike conduct subject to the discretion of the organizers.
11. The entire Rally will be run on paved roads.
12. There are no time-speed-distance sections. The entire course will be run at legal speed limits.
13. There are two mandatory checkpoints. Each team must stop and check in.
14. Upon completion of the route all point sheets will be tallied and the winners will be announced at the finish. Determination of the winners will be made by the organizers. All decisions are final.
