

The Iota Active News

Sent To All Active and Alumnae Sisters of the Iota Chapter of Phi Sigma Rho

Fall Recruitment A Success

The active sisters have done it again! They put together a great fall recruitment and have six candidates. The actives are very excited to be initiating the girls as the Iota Class of the Iota Chapter on December 10th.

Winter Initiation

The next step is to get these girls initiated! The actives have put together a fun I-Week:
Monday ~ Big-Little Night

The new girls are joining the following families:

Sharon and Anna ~ Orange

Mindy and Amy ~ Sky Blue

Sara ~ Royal Blue

Denise ~ Emerald Green

Tuesday ~ Game Night at Erin and Amber's

Wednesday ~ Bowling

Thursday ~ Engineering College Christmas Party

Friday ~ Progressive Dinner

Saturday ~ Initiation – Lots of fun activities planned! Hope to see everyone there!

Convention 2005

In July, Tracy Egut, Tricia Fought, Elizabeth Young, Karen Salisbury, Jen Jordan, and Melissa Moneysmith attended the 2005 National Convention. It was joint convention between Phi Sigma Rho and Triage Fraternity. A new National Council was selected. Amanda (Kowalski) Kitzberger was announced as a Foundation Director! The Chapter also received the 2003-2004 Abby McDonald Spirit Award and the National Service Award. Elizabeth Young and Karen Salisbury received the 2004-2005 National Alumnae Officer Award. Overall, the convention went well and the members in attendance left with a lot of information and ideas!

Just To Keep You Updated...

- ◆ The girls are preparing for 2006 officer elections.
- ◆ The first Iota Chapter Founder's Day was held on November 5th. We had a great turnout and a lot of fun. If anyone has any ideas of how to improve the event for next year, please let Elizabeth know.
- ◆ Lisa Cheski chose to deactivate at the end of the 2004-2005 school year.
- ◆ Congratulations to Christine, Ashley, and Starli who are all engaged since our last newsletter!!!
