We recommend that you make reservations early because Shreveport/Bossier City is a Casino gambling community and motel space is at a premium. Although the Shreveport motels are further from the show site, they are generally lower in price than the Bossier City motels. Some dog weight limits may be in affect. Note: I-20 construction west of Shreveport is causing some major traffic delays. Red Roof Inn in Greenwood is located close to the west entry of the I-220 loop. Acceptance of dogs policies are subject to change, so please inquire when making reservations. There are a number of new motels and change of ownership regarding existing motels. You are encouraged to check out Shreveport/Bossier City websites for additional lodging information.

Volunteers Gratefully Appreciated.

For those who joined us last year at our very first three-day trial, you know that this venture wouldn't be possible without the help of everyone, competitors and friends, that pitched in and helped during the conversion to two rings and the crunch time that followed. Volunteer help to run two rings is needed, encouraged and appreciated. If you have time and a desire to help, look for the volunteer sheet which will be posted at the information table (not the score table), or just find a place where a person is needed and pitch in. Thank you very much for your help. – Patt Elmore, Trial Secretary.

HIGHLIGHTS TO REMEMBER:

Please keep your dogs on leash when not in the ring. This is an active thoroughbred horse training/boarding facility and these big fellows spook easily. Keep dogs away from the horses, barns, track and stalls. Potty/exercise in designated areas.

Concessions may be available. Competitors are welcome to bring food and drink of their own.

All volunteer help at the trial is gratefully accepted.

Entries must be received by 7 p.m., February 27, 2004.
