(Index of Wills of Oxford County 1805-1870, Oxford County Branch, OGS)
Isaac Kipp died on August 6, 1846. In his will he mentions his sons Isaac, Benjamin, Richard, David, Daniel and John. He also mentions his wife Hannah, his daughter Eliza Reece, a grand daughter Hannah Reece and his daughter Susan Lawrence and her husband Samuel. The executors of his will were his wife Hannah, John Jackson, George Lowthian, Innkeeper, and William Force. The estimated value of his goods and chattels was 106 pounds and 10 shillings. This included such items as one yearling steer, two calves, one yolk of oxen, three horses, and five sheep, etc.

1851 Census of Canada West:
East Oxford Township. Oxford Co. has listings for two of his sons, Isaac and David. Isaac said he was born in N.Y. State.
David said he was born in the U.S.A. Isaac the elder and three of his older children Jonathan, James and John were dead by then so are not on the Census.

LAND DEALINGS:

Isaac deeded lot 1 concession 1 of East Oxford Township to two of his sons, the east 100 acres to John in 1817 and the west 100 acres to David in 1818. He then bought land on lot 11 concession 1 of Burford Township, Brant County, about one mile east of Princeton, Ontario. He bought this land from James Smiley on July 10, 1809 (NE 50 acres) for 21 pounds 17 shillings 6 pence (Memorial 276, con 1 lot 11 Burford Township, Oxford County Registry Office, Woodstock, Ontario). On May 14, 1815 he purchased a further 89 acres. On an 1824 voter's list for Oxford County Isaac was on lot 24 concession 1 of Burford Township and voted for Thomas Hornor and James Racey. In 1835, when Isaac was 71, this farm was transferred to his son Richard Titus on a life lease. Isaac died in 1846. The farm was sold to James Lewis in 1857. Part of this farm was bought by William Rabb in 1916. He married Ella Kipp, a great-granddaughter of Isaac Kipp, the elder.

On November 10, 1821, James Kipp, a son of Isaac Kipp, the elder, bought 98 acres of the west half of concession 1 lot 13, Burford Township from John Doyle for 50 pounds of lawful money of the Province of Upper Canada. However, James was bonded to his father for the sum of 400 pounds on November 20, 1821. The bond said that his father had bought the farm for the purpose of bestowing it upon James and that Isaac was determined to reserve a certain portion of the pine timber now growing on the west half of lot 13, a sufficient quantity for building and fencing; timber for the use of the farm on which Isaac was now residing, lot 11 concession 1 Burford Township. James became ill several years later. His will made out and dated March 1, 1825 is in the possession of Mrs. Ethel (Kipp) Brinker, of Princeton, Ontario. The rag paper has a watermark containing the date 1820 in large sized numbers which are easily seen when the paper is held up to the light.

The will bequeathed to his father 49 acres of the south west corner of lot 13 and to his mother one two year old heifer. The remainder of the estate was divided among his brothers and sisters. James marked his will with shaking hand in the presence of Levi R. Brown, Samuel Doyle and William Slawson. The executors of the will were Henry Slawson, Jacob Goble, and William King Cornish. James died on March 6, 1825.

A Quit Claim was issued on March 19, 1825 in which David Kipp, a son of Isaac Kipp, the elder, obtained the whole of the north west 49 acres of lot 13 for the sum of 20 pounds lawful money to each of: Isaac Kipp of Oxford, heir-at-law of James Kipp, John Kipp of Oxford, Jonathan Kipp of Oxford, Henry Reece and wife Elizabeth of Burford, Robert Lucas Gillam and wife Phebe of Dumfries, and Susan Kipp of Burford, spinster.

Isaac Kipp, the elder, passed on the southwest quarter of lot 13 to his son David on January 3, 1846. David sold the west half of lot 13 to his son David Jr. on August 30, 1870. After David Jr. died, his son Walter obtained the farm from his mother Elizabeth on a life lease in 1906. Walter's son Delmer bought the farm in 1935. Delmer ran a wholesale butter business and his brother Donald farmed the land. The farm was sold to Eugene Horvath in 1957. The original house built on lot 13 still stands in a remodeled state. Ten inch thick hand hewn squared timbers were used. There was a massive oak front door with large double lock and large key.

Isaac married Hannah MEED [493] [MRIN: 167], daughter of Jonathan MEAD [823] and Ruth [MEED] [3375], on Aug 29, 1790 in New York, USA. Hannah was born on Aug 11, 1770 in NY, USA, died on Mar 24, 1859 in Burford Twp, Brant Co., ON, Can, and was buried in ON, Can.

General Notes: In the 1851 Census for Canada West she is living with her youngest son Daniel, in Burford Township, Brant County, Ontario. She indicated she was born in the U.S.A.

The family bible (Richard Titus Kipp) says they were married August 29, 1790. If they did come from Dutchess County, Northeast Town, New York, there are several Mead families listed in the early records. In the 1790 Census, Nathaniel Mead is four above and Jonathan Mead is next to Isaac Kipp on the

Descendants of Isaac Kipp The Elder and Hannah Meed

Census list. Hannah could be the daughter of either. The most likely one is Nathaniel Mead who had a wife named Hannah Lamb. There is a hand written document obtained from Ida (Scultz) Kipp which had the name Hannah Lamb written on it.

This Nathaniel Mead appears in the D.A.R. lineage books as being a Patriot during the American Revolution.

An interesting name appears in the records as well, Titus as in Titus Mead and Richard Titus Mead. Hannah and Isaac named their ninth child Richard Titus Kipp.

No matches were found for Hannah in "History and Genealogy of the Mead Family of Fairfield County, Connecticut, Eastern New York, Western Vermont and Western Pennsylvania from A.D. 1180 to 1900," by Spencer P. Mead, 1901.

In Sutherland's "Brant Gazetteer & Directory," for 1869-70 he is listed as a retired farmer living in Princeton, Ontario.

Isaac was a private in the 1st Oxford Militia in 1812. He was charged along with several others with rioting when his brother was killed in East Oxford Township. It appears that the charges were dropped.

AND ACQUITTED OF THE MURDER.

In the "History of the County of Middlesex," 1889, on page 120, is the following account. "The first murder case before the Quarter Sessions here was on April 14, 1831, when the bench warrant was issued to the High Constable for the arrest of Jared Seely for murder. John Phelam of Oxford East, blacksmith, Joshua H. Corbin of Norwich and Wm. Haskel of London were witnesses. The man murdered was Jonathan Kipp. Owing to the fact that Seeley had friends on the bench the prosecution of charges was carried on without spirit and there is no record whatever to show the case was ever presented to the Judge of Assize."

In the Oxford County Registry Office, Woodstock, Ontario, is a Bond registered between Jonathan Kipp and Jared Seely, dated June 25, 1830. This is Memorial #1758 on concession 1 lot 7 of East Oxford Township. Jonathan was bonded to Seely for 250 pounds under rather curious conditions. Jonathan had sold Seely 50 A SW of lot 7 concession 1 for 37 pounds 10s payable by Seely as he chopped off 25 acres of land at 1 pound 5s per acre, at the rate of 5 acres per year for 5 years. Jonathan was to board Seely during this time. If the bond conditions were not honoured by Jonathan, he was to pay Seely or his heirs 125 pounds plus interest from the date of the bond. We must assume the conditions went sour!

4. James KIPP [495] (Isaac The Elder<sup>1</sup>) was born about 1793 in NY, USA and died on Mar 6, 1825 in ON, Can.

General Notes: Not much is known about him. On November 1, 1821, James Kipp, son of Isaac Kipp, the elder, bought 98 acres of the west half of lot 13 concession 1 of Burford Township, Brant County, Ontario from John Doyle for 50 pounds. However, James was bonded to his father Isaac for the sum of 400 pounds on November 20, 1821. In this bond, James indicated that his father had bought the farm for the purpose of bestowing it on James and that Isaac was determined to reserve a certain portion of the pine timber growing there for buildings and fencing on lot 11 concession of Burford Township. On an 1824 voter's list for Oxford County he was on lot 13 concession 1 of Burford Township and voted for James Racey. James must have been or became ill shortly thereafter as he signed his will date March 1, 1825 with a shaking hand. This will is in the possession of Mrs. Ehtel (Kipp) Brinker of Princeton, Ontario.

The family bible of Richard Titus Kipp gives the date of death.

The will bequeathed to Isaac Kipp, the elder, 49 acres of the south west corner of lot 13 and to his mother one two year old heifer. The remainder of the estate was divided among his brothers and sisters. The witnesses to this document were Levi R. Brown, Samuel Doyle and William Slawson. General Notes: Evidence suggests that Robert remarried.

We have the following information provided by Suzanne Seyfried of Mexico, Missouri, who is a descendant of a Robert Gillam (abt 1807 - abt 1843) of Sodom (now Haltonville), which is in Nassagaweya Twp., Halton Co., between Guelph and Milton, Ontario. He married Melinda Tennant (1809 - ) about 1830. The story is that Robert was accidentally killed while at work cutting down trees at Sodom. Melinda left the community and with her five children, all born there, started for Kansas City, Missouri, where the father of Robert Gillam still lived. When she reached the Mississippi River, the water was so high she turned back and went to Northern Illinois and found work and friends and remained. She eventually married Herman Campbell.

Robert Gillam, Anne Gillam (m. Andrew M. Underhill), Ella Underhill (m. Edmund King Greene), Lynne B. Greene (m. Seyfried).

The other document found mentioning a Robert Gillam is in the Upper Canada Marriage Bonds (Archives of Canada, mf C-6788, p. 7074, RG 8, B9, vol. 38) This document is dated Sept. 28, 1839 and is a marriage bond between Robert L. Gillam of the Township of Norwich in the District of London, widower, and Nancy Cowall of the Township of Burford in the London District, spinster.

General Notes: David went West where he homesteaded a quarter section north of Pierson, Manitoba. In 1886, he returned to Ontario and married Georgina on September 15, 1886. Methodist. They returned to Manitoba in the spring of 1887. They had a hard time on the homestead. David worked as a cook on another farm and farmed his quarter in his spare time.

In the late fall of 1902, David and his three eldest sons went to Antler, North Dakota, USA, to look for land. David bought three quarters of land near Antler. He and his boys immediately went to work and built a two-story house and as winter was mild also built a hip-roof barn. In the early spring of 1903, David returned to Pierson for the rest of the family and the whole Kipp family settled into dry-land farming. Their front yard was against the dividing line between Canada and the USA. One could step out of the yard into Saskatchewan or Manitoba. In 1908, a monument on a cement block was built there to mark the four divisions of Canada, USA and the two provinces. David's son Cecil H. carved his initials in the cement in 1910. When David's youngest son, Claire, visited the old home place 61 years later, all he found was the cement base, and after he'd pulled the grass and weeds away, there were the initials C.H.K. Antler, Aug. 1910, as plain as could be.

A drought came in 1907 and conditions got progressively drier, the dirt and dust piling up on the fences, until David's west fence was covered over with dirt-like snow drifts. In 1909, David went to work as a railroad telegrapher in Western Saskatchewan, returning to Antler in the winter. By 1912, it was so dry that they packed their belongings and traveled as far as Georgina's brother's place. There they stayed for a few days and made arrangements for their stock and machinery to be railroaded to their destination. They also boarded a train and on December 5, 1912, arrived at Wilkie, Saskatchewan and spent the night there. In the morning, their son Fred, who had a homestead already in the Wilkie east district, came and got them with a bobsled and a team of horses. It took them all day to go 18 miles as the snow was so deep. They spent the winter with Fred. That spring, a man named Percy Jones came and broke a few acres of land with a walking plow and a team of oxen. They had 80 head of sheep, some cows, and a few horses. They had to plow fire guards around each pasture because every year there were prairie fires.

Late in 1913, David bought a lot in Battleford, Saskatchewan and built a house and stable there. He worked at the skating rink in the winter and then went back out to the farm in the spring to look after the sheep. Weekends he would ride a horse or a bicycle 24 miles to Battleford to visit Georgina and his family. About 1915, David bought Fred's farm and then his son, Cecil's. Early in 1917, the house on Fred's quarter burned down, so David built another.

His son Clare came to stay with him and did the cooking. After the youngest children were on their own Georgina left Battleford and moved to the farm. They sheep-ranched and farmed until 1945. They then moved to Wilkie to a house on 2nd Street, next to their youngest daughter, Emily Whittles. In 1951, they could no longer take care of themselves, Emily having moved to BC. They then moved back to the old homestead and stayed with their son and daughter-in-law, Robert And Gladys Kipp. Georgina died in 1952. David was hospitalized in 1955 and remained so until he died in 1957 at age 93.

General Notes: Educated at Burford, Ontario. He is listed on the Canadian 1851 Census Ontario aged 22 labourer. In the winter of 1854 he journeyed to California, where he mined for three years. On April 15, 1858, he arrived in Victoria, B.C. and spent his first year mining on the Fraser River with little success. From 1859 to 1870, he carried on an extensive and remunerative stock dealing trade in the Yale District. At the time he arrived in Victoria there were only three small houses but about 5,000 people camped around the Hudson's Bay stores. Fresh water cost 10 cents per bucket. After remaining three weeks at Victoria, he bought a large canoe which he loaded with six tons of provisions and together with five others started for the gold fields of the Fraser. At the mouth of the river they were hailed by the British gunboat and were not allowed to proceed till they paid their license. There were no signs of civilization until they reached Fort Langley. When they arrived at Yale the news reached them that an Indian rebellion had broken out above the Fraser Canyon, and as they journeyed along they picked up dead bodies of no less than seventeen white men, some of which had arrows sticking into them. The miners themselves finally settled the uprising.

During the early stages of the gold rush, he brought up from Whatcom 200 head of cattle and grazed them at Chilliwack, B.C., under the care of Alex Lang. In 1859, he obtained a preemption for land, apparently from England, the first to be taken up in the Chilliwack Valley. He settled down here and thus could be called the father of Chilliwack. The cattle were fattened here and then driven to his slaughter house at Yale. They were led on their death march by a dutiful oxen named Lamb.

Two of Jonathan's cousins, Isaac and Henry Kipp, had gone to California from Ontario where they barnstormed around the once prosperous gold towns looking to pick up a fortune, but instead found none. In 1862, they heard the news that gold had been discovered in the Cariboo region of British Columbia, and joined the rush but were too late and were soon broke. The route to the gold fields lay right beside their cousin's preemption and business in Yale. They went to Jonathan for money but instead he offered them a job looking after his cattle at Chilliwack. So along with another, William Teague, they went into the cattle business.

Jonathan was Methodist. He was one of B.C.'s earliest pioneers and a successful one. At the first meeting of the Chilliwack Municipal Council on June 10, 1873, he was elected Treasurer. For several years, 1874-1883, the Chilliwack Agricultural Association events were held in barns supplied by Jonathan Reece and Isaac Kipp.

General Notes: He was born near Gobles, Ontario. He acquired his education in the schools of the area and at about the age of 19 left for the west, journeying by way of the Isthmus of Panama. He sailed from New York on November 3, 1858 and arrived in California on December 3, 1858. He afterwards engaged in mining in California until 1862, with his brother Henry. At the rumors of gold discoveries in the Cariboo District of British Columbia, they headed for Canada. They were too late and were not successful in making their fortune. In Yale, B.C., they obtained work with their cousin Jonathan Reece, who ran a cattle and slaughter business there. In this way they came to know the Chilliwack Valley, since this is where Jonathan fattened his cattle.

Jonathan Reece, Isaac and Henry Kipp and another cousin James Kipp, son of Richard Titus Kipp, were among the earliest settlers in the Chilliwack Valley. James bought 160 acres on the Chilliwack Prairie containing "Spanish Corral," on November 17, 1862, but sold in 1865 and returned to Ontario. At this time the valley was a wilderness inhabited only by Indians. The land was nominally in the possession of the government but there were no recording offices in the western wilderness and Isaac was obliged to send to England for a crown grant to the land he took up. Isaac set about improving and farming his land and over the years gradually sold portions to other settlers. Thus Isaac could well be called one of the fathers of Chilliwack as his land has been incorporated into that city.

He always had an active interest in the development of the area and community affairs. For example, the affairs of the Methodist Church began in 1865 when Rev. Ebenezer Robson conducted preaching services in Isaac's home. In 1869, Isaac was on the first board of the Methodist Church. In 1870, he was on the first school board in Chilliwack. The Kipp brothers had the first threshing machine in the valley in the early 1870's. Isaac and Jonathan Reece both were active in the Chilliwack Agricultural Association and supplied barns for the exhibitions between 1873 and 1882.

Mary was born on Aug 5, 1839 in Burford Twp, Brant Co., ON, Can, died on May 10, 1931 in Chilliwack, BC, Can, and was buried in May 1931 in Chilliwack, BC, Can.

Marriage Notes: Married by Rev. Ebenezer Robson at New Westminster, B.C.

General Notes: Mary Ann was engaged to Isaac before he went west. In preparation for frontier life, she studied nursing and surgery four years and gained practical experience assisting Dr. Blake, the district doctor. She was about 25 when she traveled west via the Panama Canal to marry Isaac. The journey was made during the time of the Civil War in the United States. The trip took two months.

She was the first white woman on the Chilliwack Prairie and for 14 years was the only nurse and midwife in the valley east of New Westminster. Her first child Jenney was the first white child in the valley. Apparently both Isaac and Mary Ann could speak the Indian languages very well as the Indians were frequent visitors.

65. Disree KIPP [579] (Benjamin<sup>2</sup>, Isaac The Elder<sup>1</sup>) was born on May 15, 1840 in Burford Twp, Brant Co., ON, Can, died on Sep 9, 1849, and was buried in Sep 1849 in Princeton, Oxford Co., ON, Can.

66. Henry KIPP [580] (Benjamin<sup>2</sup>, Isaac The Elder<sup>1</sup>) was born on Jul 30, 1842 in Burford Twp, Brant Co., ON, Can, died on Dec 10, 1930 in Chilliwack, BC, Can, and was buried in Dec 1930 in Chilliwack, BC, Can.

General Notes: He left home at the age of 16 and made his way to New York. From there he took a ship to Colon on the Isthmus of Panama, crossed to the Pacific and took a sailing vessel to San Francisco. From there he walked to Bakersfield, CA, where he joined his older brother Isaac. He worked there six years and in 1864 set out for Barkerville in the Cariboo mining area of British Columbia. He arrived in Victoria. B.C., stayed there a short time, crossed to New Westminster and paddled from there to Fort Yale in a canoe. The Cariboo road had just been completed and Henry learning that passengers on the stage coach had to walk up every hill, thought he might as well walk down the hills too and save his fare, so he walked from Yale to Barkerville.

Like many others, Henry did not make a fortune mining gold, but he did have many thrilling experiences. For two years he played in Professor Carpenter's orchestra, making $25.00 per night playing his violin for dances. From Barkerville, he returned to Yale where he worked for a time as a butcher for his cousin Jonathan Reece. He then moved on to the Chilliwack Valley to join his brother Isaac. Henry pre-empted 160 acres of land in the Sumas area, decided there was too much water and too many mosquitoes there and bought another 160 acres at Centreville from Jim Bertrand. His property stretched from Williams Road east to Hazel Street and south to where the CNR railway later laid tracks. Northward it stretched to where Portage Avenue later was built. He had property on both side of Yale Road. He was granted a wood lot which enlarged his 160 to 178 acres.

In 1870, Henry went east to marry Caroline Ann Trenamen. They returned to Chilliwack, traveling west by the South Pacific Railway to San Francisco, to Victoria by boat, and then to New Westminster and Chilliwack by boat.

Their first home was situated on the site of the present (1961) High School. This house burned down in 1892 and a fine new home was built the next year across the road on a site now occupied by the Senior High School administration building.

Henry farmed, keeping cattle, sheep and Berkshire hogs. But a heart he was a natural horticulturist. His place became noted for its beautiful trees which included sugar maple, butternut, walnut, beech, black ash and hickory as well as fruit trees. His son James took over much of the horticultural work in later years. Like his father he loved to beautify the surroundings with flowers, shrubs and trees.

In civic life, Henry served for a number of years as member of the Municipal Council and was also a member of the school board. He was a prominent Mason, a member of the Presbyterian Church and was deeply interested in all that pertained to the development of the Chilliwack Valley, particularly in the fruit growing industry. In the early days, Henry was one of the mail carriers between Yale and New Westminster, especially at the times when the steamboat from New Westminster could not navigate up the Fraser River. The handling of Their Majesties' mail became a family tradition since a son, Wilfred Kipp, was the Postmaster at Ashcroft for 8 years and then at Chilliwack for 24 years. Wilfred's son, E. Harvey Kipp, was the Postmaster at Chilliwack for a number of years. He retired about 1974. Another grandson of Henry, Wilfred, son of Walter was also in the mail service at Kamloops. Those early mail trips over snow drifted trails provided many an adventure.

At another time Henry moved a drove of pigs over the Hope-Princeton trail, tying sacks about their feet where the pathway was rocky. These pigs were butchered at Granite Creek and the meat sold to the miners there. One time when the Fraser River was frozen over, Henry skated to New Westminster in order to keep an important business appointment. It was a day's trip.

Church, they went west to Chilliwack, B.C. They traveled by the South Pacific Railway to San Francisco, to Victoria by boat, and then to New Westminster and Chilliwack by boat.

Caroline faced the rigors of pioneer life quietly and bravely. A woman of strong Christian faith, she organized the first Sunday School in Centerville, B.C. It was non-denominational, attended by young and old, and was held at first in her home and then in the little one room school house located on the site of the later day Eaton Store. At the time there were just two buildings on that triangle which faced, at its point, the Five Corners in Chilliwack. These were the St. Thomas Anglican Church and the school house. She was ever ready to lend a hand at a time when the Fraser River furnished the only means of transportation and communication with the outside world, and when the nearest medical help was in New Westminster.

76. James KIPP [629] (Daniel<sup>2</sup>, Isaac The Elder<sup>1</sup>) was born in 1836 in Burford Twp, Brant Co., ON, Can and died on Apr 25, 1923.

General Notes: He traveled to the California gold fields as a young man. He went by ship to Panama and on arriving there had to spend about two weeks waiting for a ship to California. He often told stories of how hot it was there and how a man could get a tan even under the palm tree with his shirt on. He stayed at a hotel and at meal times the men were required to wear a jacket. It was so hot that generally they pulled out their shirt tails and let them hang out so that it looked as if they were wearing a jacket.

When he arrived in California he joined up with another fellow and bought some mules. They used them to pack supplies into the gold fields where they made a handsome profit on sales. From here James went to the gold fields in British Columbia with his cousins Isaac and Henry Kipp.

He ended up in the Chilliwack Valley with cousins Jonathan Rece and Isaac and Henry Kipp. He bought land there in 1862 but sold in 1865 and returned home to Creditville, Ontario. Here he carried on a business as a carriage and wagon maker. James is said to have named Creditville because he always claimed he could never collect cash for his work. Baptist.
